

App user terms and conditions

All offers advertised within the ThatBar app are subject to availability. Barcode Promotions Ltd cannot guarantee the availability of products advertised within ThatBar app and therefore will not be held accountable in regards to any dispute between you the app user and the establishment you interact with.

Promotions that contain the word 'Selected' mean the promotion is limited to items selected by the vendor and not to the choice of the app user. Promotions that neither contain the word 'any' or 'selected' mean the promotion may be limited to selected items.

Depending on the vendors discretion, vouchers redeemed after their expiry time may or may not be accepted. The vendor will be required to tap the return icon on your mobile voucher screen to complete the validation. The vendor may refuse to accept the voucher if the return icon has not been tapped.

An internet connection is required to redeem vouchers. Barcode Promotions cannot guarantee each establishment will have mobile internet coverage or Wi-Fi access.
